INTRODUCTION

Here is nothing new, the good thing you know that the center of actions is thinking. To be specific, thinking is the action of the spirit; no wonder Jesus Said when you have looked upon a woman to lust, you have done fornication already in your heart because that is how you as a spirit does things. Just as simple as thinking. Okay let us see what to focus much in specific situations then.

1. Alone

You have guessed right, when you are alone, mind your thoughts

2. With friends

Here chatting is good but you mind the words that you speak

3. Emotional

Be careful here to monitor you reaction and action.

4. With a group

Real character is what is needed therefore mind, behavior

5. In trouble

Target emotions my friend

6. When blessed

Target pride, I read someone saying “it is simple to be happy but not simple to be simple,” but this is not your speech because you know that everything is possible with them that believe.

7. When Studying

Mind understanding

8. When with God

Target sincerity, my friend, I believe that by now you know that there not even a single little time when you are not is the presence of God; therefore sincerity is your life also.

CONCLUSION

Aha if God has revealed to you additional target areas, write them in your dictionary, your personal knowledge
